

September 9th, 2022 | For immediate public release:

Treeline Sound and KRFC 88.9 FM present:
The Third Annual UPLIFT: FOCO

Sunday, November 13th, 2022 @
The Aggie Theatre in Fort Collins, Colorado

Returning for its third year, Uplift: FoCo inspires community growth through exceptional local music, with all proceeds benefiting the new Uplift Scholarship. This scholarship provides mentors and funding directly to youth to expand their access to music. The house band features a handpicked group who are some of Northern Colorado's best musicians. They will be accompanied by four unique Fort Collins songwriters plus youth musicians from The Matthews House and School of Rock.

The Uplift: FoCo house band includes:

Eric Thorin on bass (Peter Rowan, Bonnie Paine)
Joe Lessard on fiddle (Head For The Hills)
Eric Wiggs on guitar (Masontown)
Dusty Rider on banjo & pedal steel (The Railsplitters)
Russick Smith on mandolin & cello (Shovelin' Stone)
Jordan Pasquin on drums (Write Minded)

With an opening set by:

Christine Alice

And special performances from:

Cary Morin
TMULE
Hannah Rodriguez

The evening will also include a Silent Auction & Art Show featuring items based in and uniquely Northern Colorado. Plus there will be a live painter, limited edition merchandise, prize giveaways, and more.

Uplift: FoCo is a network connecting human service agencies, music program providers, musicians, venues, and studios who are aligned with expanding access to music for youth, particularly teenagers from system-involved, low income, and broken home families. Youth will receive scholarship and mentorship support alongside open access to this network, building youth-defined pathways into the music world. Our annual event is a showcase and celebration of the Uplift: FoCo community.

Doors open at 5pm. Show starts at 6pm.

Tickets: General admission is donation based, pay what you can
 $15 - Reserved seating
 $80 - VIP table with priority entrance, reserved table with seating for 4, & a signed poster
